Your son or daughter will soon experience the often-awkward first co-ed dance, social gathering or date.

- With an emphasis on social graces, and some basic dance techniques, we offer an interactive learning experience that will prepare your middle school aged student with necessary social and table etiquette for a variety of social situations for years to come.
- Cotillion promises to be fun, too! The last class session, students will put what they have learned to the test. There will be a cotillion social with dancing and dinner. Parents are welcome to attend!
